ORDER FOR PROTECTED ADDRESS

Upon Request of [ ] Petitioner [ ] Respondent, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that:

The address of [ ] Petitioner [ ] Respondent shall be protected from public disclosure until further order of this court. A party with a protected address is obligated to ensure documents they file in their case do not contain their protected address information.

From the date of this Order for Protected Address, the Clerk of the Court shall protect the address of [ ] Petitioner [ ] Respondent from public disclosure on all court generated documents until further order of this court.

The Clerk and the parties hereto shall comply with the requirements of Rule 7, ARFLP.

Any person required under these rules to serve a response or other document upon a person whose address is ordered protected from disclosure under this rule may serve the same by delivering true and correct copies of the documents to be served, together with the proper fee established by administrative order to cover the cost of service, to the clerk of the court. The clerk shall promptly mail the documents by regular first-class mail to the most recent protected address provided to the clerk, and service shall be deemed complete upon mailing. The clerk shall promptly file a written statement verifying the documents that were mailed and the date of mailing to the protected address signed by the clerk or deputy clerk who mailed the documents. All documents mailed to a protected address shall bear the clerk's return address, and a notation of any process returned as undelivered shall be made in the court file.
